On Friday, May 31st, we will bid a fond farewell to our eighth graders. The graduation ceremony begins at 6:30 pm. The final day of school for all is June 5th, and we wish our students and families a safe and enjoyable summer!

As this is the final Board of Education meeting while school is in session this year, I thank and commend our entire amazing school community for everything that we pour into this wonderful place to make it the place for kids to learn and grow as positive young American citizens. Our community members and families have outdone themselves in supporting us, and our students continue to amaze us every day with their joyful personalities, outstanding efforts, and Panther Pride. I always say this because I know it- we have the best faculty and staff anywhere, and I could not be more proud and honored to work beside them.
